University of Toronto LAW JOURNAL

CONTENTS volume XXXVII

ARTICLES

Federal judicial appointments in Canada: The time is ripe for change — JACOB S. ZIEGEL 1

Enterprise control: The servant-independent contractor distinction — ROBERT FLANNIGAN 25

Moffat Hancock and the conflict of laws: An American-Canadian perspective — ROBERT A. SEDLER 62

An investment approach to a theory of contract mitigation — JEFFREY G. MACINTOSH DAVID C. FRYDENLUND 113

Constitutional conceits: The coercive authority of courts — DAVID BEATTY 183

Volume 1 of the journal: A tribute and a belated review — R.C.B. RISK 193

Preface to issue number 3 — WALTER BLOCK 227

Commercial expansion and the Charter — ROBERT J. SHARPE 229

The inversion of constitutionalism — HENRY J. MANNE 260

Economic mobility and constitutional reform — TANYA LEE MICHAEL J. TREBILCOCK 268

Mobility and federalism — ALBERT BRETON 318

John Skirving Ewart: The legal thought — R.C.B. RISK 335

Style, meaning, and knowing: Megarry J. and Denning M.R. in In re Vandervell's Trusts (No. 2) — DENNIS R. KLINCK 358

Mistaken payments: An inner logic infringed? — R.J. SUTTON 389

REVIEW ARTICLES

The personless paradigm MICHAEL MC DONALD 212

Who belongs? Theoretical and legal questions about birthright citizenship in the United States JOSEPH H. CARENS 413

REVIEWS OF BOOKS

HENRY B. VEATCH: Human Rights: Fact or Fancy? ALAN BRUDNER 327